

2022 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards New York City: Entry Fee Payment Options for Educators

Payment Options for Educators:

All entry fees for New York City programs must be paid online via PayPal through the student or educator account, with the exception of large sum payments from an educator/school for multiple students' entries.

An educator can pay the entry fees for multiple students' works using one of the below methods:

For students submitting fee waivers:

Fee waiver forms are only accessible through student accounts; they cannot be accessed through your educator account. All fee waiver forms must be signed by the student's parent or guardian and digitally uploaded to the student account. Do not mail in fee waiver forms. Do not include the barcode of works covered by fee waivers on the list of works paid by check or bank transfer.
